

Objectives:

In this scenario, you will:

- Navigate to an existing blog or private journal page
- View overall participation
- Evaluate a student's participation
- View different versions of a page
- Compare versions side by side

Quick Start Guide:

Viewing Blog Participation and History

By reviewing participation, you can access contributions to a blog or private journal by total entries created, total views, and total comments.

Reviewing history allows you to view all the revisions made to a blog or private journal page and to compare versions side by side.

Colored highlighting indicates the changes that have been made to the wiki page:

- Green highlight indicates text has been added
- Yellow highlight indicates text has been modified
- Red highlight and strikethrough indicate has been deleted

Navigation:

1. Enter a blog or private journal site.
2. Click the Evaluation link.

Steps:

Selecting Participant Detail

1. On the Activity Summary page, click a participant's name.
2. Click  to review participant detail.

Searching for Entries and Viewing History

1. On the blog or private journal site, click the drop-down arrow for the Author Filter field.
2. Select an author.
3. On the blog entry page, click the History link.
4. On the Page History page, select a version of the blog.
5. Click  to view a version.
6. To view the previous version, click  if applicable.
7. To view the next version, click  if applicable

Comparing Versions

1. Click the drop-down arrow for the Compare to field.
2. Select a version.
3. Click the Compare button.