

Objectives:

In this scenario, you will:

- Navigate to the Manage Sharing page
- Define sharing permissions for contributors, viewers, and managers
- Define sharing permissions for users, and members of a course, group, and organization
- Invite an external user
- Assign editing, commenting, tagging, and date restriction options
- Assign administrative access
- Add a permission set

Quick Start Guide:

Managing Sharing for Podcasts

After creating a podcast site, you can define who you want to grant editing, commenting, and tagging permissions. If the podcast site is available to everyone, you can also enable the RSS functionality.

You can group participants as contributors, viewers, and managers—granting each group discreet permissions. You can even rename the default permission sets, create new ones, and invite users outside your institution to participate.

The default setting for a podcast site is “Share with the owner.” Other options are:

- Share with everyone in the world
- Share with everyone at the institution
- Share with specific users
- Share with members in a course
- Share with members of a group
- Share with members of an organization

Navigation

When initially creating a podcast site, you are automatically taken to the Manage Sharing page. If you left this page or want to modify the sharing permissions, follow the navigation below.

1. Enter a podcast site.
2. Click the Sharing link in the Actions area.

Steps

Define Contributors

1. In the Contributors area, click the Edit People button.
2. Select Everyone, Users, Courses, Groups, or Organizations.

If you selected Everyone:
